

DE GRUYTER
MOUTON

Guidelines for submitting a proposal for a book in the Pacific Linguistics series to De Gruyter Mouton

Please submit the following information:

- a) Title of the proposed book;
- b) Brief explanation of what the book is about, with sample illustrations that permit the referees to understand and appreciate the proposal more fully;
- c) Brief explanation of why the book is important with sufficient discussion of how the adopted theory and methodology contribute to the proposed account;
- d) Proposed structure of the book and rationale for that structure;
- e) Brief narrative CV of author(s) or editor(s);
- f) Description of target audience/proposed market;
- g) Description of any similar publications on the market which might be considered competitive with the proposed book (please mention publisher and price);
- h) Approximate length of the book (manuscripts containing 250-350 pages per book are preferred);
- i) Reason why this book is appropriate to the Pacific Linguistics series;
- j) Names of three potential reviewers. These should be relevant researchers in the field who are not closely associated with the author/editor.

Additional requirements

Dissertations: Please also submit the reviews from your supervisors/examiners and the complete manuscript.

Monographs: Please specify which research questions underlie your book and enclose a sample chapter.

Edited volumes: Please also submit abstracts for all contributions. The final manuscript should also contain an introduction by the volume editor(s) providing a general background to the book's topic and pointing out features connecting individual contributions.

Textbooks can only be considered if it can be convincingly demonstrated that they will be widely used. Please provide as much information as possible regarding who might use the book and any other relevant information.

The proposal should comprise 5-10 pages (not including sample chapter for monographs) and should be submitted by e-mail to mouton.editorial@degruyter.com with cc to uri.tadmor@degruyter.com and pacling@anu.edu.au. On advice of the series editor(s) De Gruyter Mouton may ask you for further information or sample chapters. Upon acceptance by the series editor(s) you will be issued with a contract.
